

UNIONIZATION SIGNAL OF INDUSTRIAL DECAY SAYS STEEL MAGNATE

Head of United States Steel Corporation Favors Reasonable Government Control of Business Cure for Labor Unrest

E. H. Gary Advocates Non-Partisan Commissioners To Aid In Adjusting Disputes

New York, April 18.—By Associated Press.—Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the United States Steel Corporation, told the stockholders at their annual meeting today he was in favor of publicity regulations and reasonable control of business through government agencies as a possible "collusion of, or antidote to, the labor union problem."

Declaring he did not believe in socialism or in governmental management or operation, he suggested that non-partisan, non-sectarian commissions of the departments render the decision subject to review by the highest court.

Mr. Gary devoted a considerable portion of his address to labor unions and said: "The natural and certain effects of labor unionism are expressed by three words—inefficiency, high costs." "I would not intentionally do an injustice to any union labor leader or to a labor union," he continued. "But I firmly believe complete unionization of the industry of this country would be the beginning of industrial decay."

"It seems to me," he said, "that the natural, if not the necessary, result of the contemplated progress of labor unions, if successful, would be the control of shops, then of the general management of the business, then of capital, and finally the government."

Admitting that unions "may have been justified in the long past," because workmen were not treated justly, he declared there is now "no necessity" for labor unions, "in the opinion of the large majority of both employers and employees."

Will Proceed With Hearings For Reductions in Wages

Time Limit of Five Days For Each Side Fixed

Chicago, April 18.—The Railroad Labor Board today decided to proceed immediately with the consolidated hearing into the requests of 97 railroads for wage reductions, denying the union's plea for a postponement until the appointment of three new members named by President Harding is confirmed by the Senate.

The Board ruled it was within the law in proceeding with a majority of its members present. The Board extended the time-limit for evidence to five days of five-hour hearings for each side. The carriers will open and at the end of their testimony a week's recess will be taken to let the union prepare their testimony. The employees then will have five days in which to present their side.

PROBABLE CHOICE OF DAVIS FOR "CABINET"

General "Moving Up" Anticipated When New Law Effective

Ripper Bill Becomes Effective July 1st.

(By Associated Press)

Columbus, April 18.—With the prospect of the state government reorganization bill becoming a law this week by the house giving its concurrence to a few minor amendments made by the Senate and by receiving Gov. Davis' signature, interest is developing in the probable selection of the chief executive will make for the eight directorships or "cabinet" positions created by the measure.

The reorganization bill unless it is held up in the courts will become effective July 1st.

For the welfare directorship the Governor, it is said, will try to secure either E. C. Shaw, of Akron, or Marshall Shippy, of Toledo, present members of the Board of Administration. It also is understood that the Governor is considering Dr. Edmund H. Baehr, of Cincinnati, a Democratic member of the administration board for director of the Public Health Department.

The name of Dr. H. H. Snively, of Columbus, physician and surgeon of the National Guard, also is prominently mentioned for the health directorship.

Edward A. Anderson, general superintendent of the Proctor & Gamble Company, Cincinnati, may be asked to fill one of the directorships, it is said, probably finance. Floyd E. Waite, the governor's private secretary, has been most prominently mentioned for the commerce post, but has also been mentioned for the finance position. W. H. Phipps, a Paulding attorney also is being considered for the commerce position, it is said.

The Post of Industrial Relations director is to be offered to Percy Tetlow, of Columbiana county, it is reliably reported. L. J. Taber, of Barnesville, master of the Ohio Grange, and C. A. Dyer, of Coalton, secretary of the Ohio Home Protective League, are understood to be under consideration for the Agricultural Directorship.

Leon C. Herrick, of Norwalk, Highway Commissioner, will, it is generally believed, be the new director of public works, to which the highway department belongs.

Vernon M. Ruegel, unless he resigns as superintendent of public instruction which is considered possible, will be the director of education because of constitutional provisions.

JAPAN AND U.S. ARE BOTH STAUNCH IN POSITIONS

(By Associated Press)

Washington, April 18.—The American and Japanese Governments have adopted equally firm attitudes with respect to the status of the Pacific island of Yap.

The diplomatic exchanges between them on the subject is continuing, but those to date were made public today both in Washington and Tokio. They consist of two memoranda and three formal notes.

Japan in its last communication insisted that it had been awarded a mandate for the island and that it could not agree with the American contention that, irrespective of any award of mandate, other nations should have free access to the islands for the landing and operations of cables.

In replying to his note, Secretary Hughes on April 5 stated emphatically that the United States could not be bound by any action either of the Supreme Council or of the League of Nations and that the American government could not "recognize the allocation of the island or the validity of the mandate to Japan."

The Japanese Government now has this communication under consideration. The viewpoint of the Harding administration, is that the question of whether the Supreme Council did actually award the island to Japan on May 7, as contended by that country and disputed by President Wilson is of secondary importance.

The important point, it is emphasized, in recognition by the Allied governments of the principle laid down by Mr. Hughes that the United States has an equal right with the others in the former overseas possession of Germany.

Irish Leader Indicates Effort To Float Loan Will be Made.

(By Associated Press)

Chicago, April 18.—Messages from field leaders in Ireland's fight for independence declaring that the Irish virtually had won were read today by Harry J. Boland, secretary to Eamonn DeValera at the first convention of the American Association for the recognition of the Irish Republic.

A message from "President" DeValera who is in Ireland, said:

"The terror will break long before there will be any weakening of our people. The nation has taken a new resolve and the time has arrived when we can, without undue optimism, safely predict that."

Mr. Boland in an address pleaded for the recognition of the "Irish Republic" by the United States and for moral and financial support from all Americans. He said a new Irish loan of $100,000,000 might be floated in this country soon, saying that the struggle rapidly was becoming a matter of money.

UNCLE SAM WON'T STAND FOR WAR ON THE ISTHMUS

(By Associated Press)

Washington, April 18.—War between Panama and Costa Rica growing out of the present boundary dispute will not be tolerated by the United States, it was learned today authoritatively.

Both governments are understood to have been informed that the obduracy of Panama over the acceptance of the White award, insisted upon by American Government, must not be made the basis for the renewal of hostilities.

It was not revealed in what manner the United States had made known that it would regard hostilities will keep displeasure, but it was assumed that representations had been sent to both Panama City and San Jose.

Officials reports received here recently indicated that peace on the isthmus was again about to be disturbed. These said that Panama was mobilizing her army, while Costa Rica had been assured of the support of Salvador, Honduras and Guatemala. There is a considerable force of American troops in the regular garrison in the Panama Canal zone.

OPPOSITION APPEARS ON GOVERNOR'S BILL MEMBERS LOCK HORNS

Columbus, April 18.—House Republicans locked horns in caucus today on taxation problem and incidentally there developed the first opposition in the House to the Governor's reorganization bill.

The uniform rule advocates threatened to hold up final passage of the bill if the Governor insisted on adoption of the taxation resolution sponsored by the Governor's taxation committee to abrogate the uniform rule of taxation in the constitution.

The opposition to the reorganization bill broke when it was announced that L. J. Taber and C. A. Dyer, farm leaders, who were leading the fight for the Governor's taxation program, were being considered by the governor for appointment as director of agricultural.

Words Can't Express Gratitude I Feel Toward Tanlac, Says Mrs. Burrington

"From childhood until I got Tanlac, I suffered from indigestion and stomach trouble," said Mrs. J. A. Burrington, 540 Stanford Ave., Los Angeles, Calif., and that's been a land time for I'm now in my sixty-eighth year.

"I remember when I was a child I was kept on a strict diet of lime water and milk for weeks and I have been in constant distress all these years. I suffered terribly from bloating and had to be very careful of what I ate. I became so weak and nervous I could hardly go about my housework and was in a miserable condition.

MRS. J. A. BURRINGTON

"About two years ago my husband got such splendid results from Tanlac he insisted on my taking it and the medicine wasn't but a little while in ridding me of my troubles. It gave me a splendid appetite and I could enjoy a good hearty meal, even things I hadn't dared touch before, with out any fear of it troubling me. "Then I had the influenza and became dreadfully sick and weak, but my stomach kept in good order and it only took four bottles of Tanlac to build me up again to where I'm now feeling better than at any time I can remember. I have gained eleven pounds in weight, too, and word's can't express the gratitude I feel toward Tanlac. I keep Tanlac in the house all the time now, for I know it is a medicine that can be depended upon." —Advertisement.

CAPTAIN MAYNARD MAY BE SELECTED DAVIS' SECRETARY

With indication that Floyd Waite, present secretary to Gov. Davis, may be chosen to head one of the departments in the Governor's cabinet, the name of Capt. John P. Maynard, formerly of this city, is mentioned as successor to Waite as the Governor's secretary.

In this connection the Columbus Dispatch says:

"This means that there will be a vacancy in the executive secretaryship—always an interesting position. The name of John P. Maynard now clerk of the House, has been used in connection with the position vacancy. He is fixed in the place of his choice for the next two years in the position he now holds, with very little hard work in sight and it is evident, in spite of the larger salary that the executive secretaryship carries, that if he is taken over into the new position it will be the Governor's wishes and not his.

"Probably no other man in the state has so large an acquaintance with the prominent people of the state and with this fine asset in a private secretary he has also urbanity and Chesterfieldian grace that has not been matched in the position since Charles L. Kurtz held sway back in the days of the late Governor Foraker. In connection with the anticipate vacancy the name of W. S. Bundy, of Wellston, now a subordinate clerk in the executive office is mentioned. Singularly Bundy is a nephew of Governor Foraker—the son of the late "Billy" Bundy, a brother of Mrs. Foraker."

ANNUAL MEETING SCORES SUCCESS FOR PRESBYTERIAL

The annual Presbyterian meeting of the Missionary Society of Chillicothe Presbytery convened last Thursday night and Friday in the Presbyterian church of Greenfield, with the largest audience in years and interest reaching the high water mark. The Washington C. H. societies made splendid showing with twice as many representatives as any other society.

The programs were exceptionally good and the sessions capably managed by the president, Mrs. W. Quincey Kinkaid, of Bloomingburg.

Mrs. Smith Ordway, Home Field Secretary of the New York Board, made two fine addresses. On Friday afternoon she gave a glowing description of the San Juan Hospital, of Porto Rico; its wonderful scenic setting, and great work accomplished.

In the evening Mrs. Ordway gave a masterly review of the Home Missionary Fields, covering the Indians, the Mountain Whites, the Mormons and the Negroes. It was a word travel tour that gave wonderful insight into need of missionary work in our United States. The speaker dwelt especially upon the evils of Mormonism and urged that women use their influence to prevent the election of Mormons to public office.

Miss Elterick, of Chetoo, China, made the other address—a very pleasing speaker—her parents missionaries and spending all her life in China, except while being educated in this country.

Mrs. Kinkaid was re-elected president; Mrs. G. M. Ustick and Mrs. Austin Hopkins, of this city, re-elected vice president and home secretary. A new office was created and Mrs. Frank Stevenson, of Hillsboro, installed as secretary over-seas hospital work.

All the reports were excellent and showed the Presbyterian doing a great work in all branches of missions.

Delegates and visitors loudly acclaimed the hospitality of Greenfield, and the beautiful entertainment given.

The dinner and supper in the church basement Friday were both noteworthy in their success. The guests were met at the trains by autos and entertained in the homes.

The music, specially prepared for the meeting, was exceptionally fine. Mr. Ralph Price contributing organ solos; Mrs. Frank Duncan, soprano solo and anthems by the choir.

FRANCE READY TO QUIT LEAGUE

Paris, April 14.—Following receipt of the message of President Harding in Paris, the French foreign office instructed the French representatives on the League of Nations at Geneva gradually to reduce France's participation in the work of the League. The idea is to make the League a mere instrument for the execution of the treaty.

This is regarded in diplomatic circles as a formal abandonment by France of the Wilsonian League and as an indication that France is willing to participate in a new association as foreshadowed by President Harding.

Two days before the picnic, Joe bought two cans of Lowe Brothers Auto Varnish Colors and spent a pleasant afternoon cleaning the car up and painting it.

This morning it was bone-dry, and Joe says he's going to keep the car instead of trading it for a new model; it looks so good.

It's lots of fun to repaint your car if you use Lowe Brothers Auto Varnish Colors. Made in all the popular colors. Come in and ask us about them.

Our Greatest Extravagance

While we Americans must and do acknowledge that we have been wofefully extravagant in our public and private expenditures during the last five years, yet there is one feature in connection with our vast expenditures which is comforting and reassuring—our generous contributions to charity and our cordial and practical support of every worthy movement for the relief of suffering, no matter in what part of the world it exists.

Now that conditions are forcing us to realize that we would better off today in financing our own private affairs and in lightening the staggering load of taxes we must carry if we had been a little "closer fisted" during the days of financial plenty, our concern for the future is not nearly so disturbing when we scan the record of expenditures and see how generously the helping hand of the nation has gone down in its pockets to meet the calls for aid.

Billions have been loaned to the nations menaced by war and other billions have been spent directly, to relieve the consequences of war.

In her prosperity America has been more prodigal in expenditures for others than for herself and the individual Americans have paid out a great sum to help others than they have to gratify their own selfish desires.

There is comfort in contemplating those facts and there is assurance, too, that material benefits are certain, in time, to follow.

America has helped nobly the cause of humanity and America is now helping tremendously and will continue to help for, after all, we Americans realize that we don't know what "hard times" are no matter how much we complain.

Mrs. Sharp Davies

It is not probable that this community, frankly and honestly as it has acknowledged and taken pride in the goodness and greatness of Mrs. Sharp Davies, will ever fully realize or understand the extent of the life work of that really remarkable woman.

So modestly, so unpretentiously, so quietly and, yet, so determinedly did Mrs. Sharp Davies set about the accomplishments of the tasks which she had assigned herself, so varied were her activities and so marked her abilities that almost literally speaking, her left hand did not know what her right was doing.

Mrs. Sharp Davies was such a capable business woman that her judgment on business affairs was sought and her advice followed by many of the community's active business men, but, notwithstanding the possession of that wonderful talent for large business affairs she was always, above all else, the modest, refined, cultured, lovable and kindly Christian woman. Her home, her church, her charities, her interest in education and broad philanthropy commanded and received a full allotment of her time, talent and energy.

For nearly three score years, Mrs. Sharp Davies' life has been a great factor in this community's development, and generations yet to come will reap the harvest of her good deeds.

Her life strengthens us all in our faith that eternal reward must come for those who live well this earthly life.

Increasing In Favor

Aside from too much watered stock, too much overcapitalization, the chief difficulty has been too much regulation by the government and too many radical and temporary working agreements forced on operators, owners and employees of railroads.

The public is concerned with the service furnished by the transportation lines, but with the cost of operation, with the wages paid employees and with the hours of work, experience seems to teach us, are all problems which should be left to employers and employees to adjust under the demands of business conditions.

The government should content itself with seeing to it that the service is not halted or crippled to an extent which menaces commerce.

There has been entirely too much interference by lawmakers and executives with the management of our transportation lines, in an attempt, perhaps laudable enough in purpose, to adjust differences which do not concern the public and which should be worked out by owners and employees.

The harmful interference of the past four years may be forgiven and even justified under the plea of war's necessity, but in peace time it is well to go back to old time methods, even though they may seem, at first, a bit reactionary.

Either that or we must go the whole length with and make of the railroads an arm of the government. It may come to that sooner than many of us suspect, but it is well to allow private control, guarding always, of course, against abuses which effect the public, to assume full control and to exact the full measure of responsibility.

POETRY FOR TODAY

WAITING

Serene I fold my hands and wait.
Nor care for wind, or tide, or sea;
I rave no more 'gainst time or fate,
For lo! My own shall come to me.

I stay my haste, I make delays
For what avails this eager pace?
I stand amid the eternal days,
And what is mine shall know my face.

Asleep, awake, by night or day,
The friends I seek are seeking me;
No wind can drive my bark astray,
No change the tide of destiny.

What matter if I stand alone?
I wait with joy the coming years;
My heart shall reap where it has sown,
And garner up the fruit of tears.

The waters know their own and draw
The brook that springs in yonder height;
So flows the good with equal law
Unto the soul of pure delight.

The stars come nightly to the sky,
The tidal wave into the sea;
Nor time, nor space, nor deep, nor high,
Can keep my own away from me.

WASHINGTON FULL OF CHEERFULNESS NEW CONFIDENCE

Hughes' Personality Gives Feeling of Optimism in Treaty Tangle

Senate in Mood of Waiting After Peremptory Rebuke in President's Message

BY MARK SULLIVAN
(Copyright 1921)

Washington, April 18.—Washington as respects the Treaty, the League and our foreign affairs altogether, has spent part of last week in a mood of "Well where do we go from here?" Nobody knows exactly where we are going or by what route we are going to get there, but they have perfect confidence in the captain. The unmistakable mood of Washington is one of the atmosphere having been cleared of cheerfulness and optimism, of new-found confidence.

The base of this confidence is the solid personality of Charles E. Hughes. There is no aspect of our present history more important than the daily increasing sense of reassurance and security in Mr. Hughes. He radiates strength. There is the air of strength in the stride with which he goes about his work, and in the quickly smiling openness of his countenance. We get comfort even from the physical appearance of strength that he has, the virile whiskers and big teeth, and we get confidence from the clear, straight-forward and gentle blue eyes, which will seek justice for the other side of a controversy as surely as for his own.

Mr. Hughes has an appalling chaos to untangle. He must first get the assurance from the Allies that the Treaty can be opened up. That assurance presumably will come in the shape of the replies to the Yap note. Thereafter, he must perform the most complex job of surgery ever attempted by hand of man—the separating of those parts of the Treaty of Versailles in which we say we have an interest from the parts in which we say we have no interest.

The Senate is for the moment in a mood of waiting. If you say to a Senator "Surely in the whole of the hundred thousand words of the Versailles Treaty there must be at least five thousand words that we can ratify," the Senator will reply, "Let us first see what five thousand words you mean."

Senate Severely Rebuked
In the present disposition to give the Administration a free hand in the working out of the Treaty tangle, and in this whole tension between the Administration and the Senate, it is possible to overlook a good deal that can be said for the Senate side of it. President Harding was more peremptory to the Senate than is generally realized. The urbanity of the words of the speech softened some of the substance. It is true, President Harding completely buried the League of Nations, and to that extent pleased and justified the irreconcilables. But all else that he did was extremely unpalatable.

He said that later on he proposes to have an association of nations. He said that he proposes to "engage" under the Versailles Treaty, and to many of the irreconcilable the Versailles Treaty is just as obnoxious as the League of Nations. He told the senate that they could pass their Knox resolution, but they must first reduce it to a mere shadow of what it was.

It must be merely a technical Knox, was told, and has obeyed the direction to shear off the two most important parts of its resolution—the section in which the Senate directed the President to make a new treaty with Germany and the part in which the Senate presumed to declare the future foreign policy of the United States.

There was stern rebuke in President Harding's saying to the very faces of the Senators, "In correcting the failure of the Executive, in negotiating the most important treaty in the history of the nation, to recognize the constitutional powers of the Senate we would go to the other extreme, equally objectionable. If Congress or the Senate should assume the function of the Executive. Our highest duty is the preservation of the constituted powers of each, and the promotion of the spirit of cooperation so essential to our common welfare."

"Neither Congress nor the people needs my assurance that a request to negotiate needed treaties of peace would be superfluous and unnecessary as it is technically ineffective, and I know in my own heart there is none who would wish to embarrass the Executive in the performance of his duty when we are so eager to turn disappointment and delay into gratifying accomplishment."

In spite of the ingratiating padding of the words, that was, in the language of the prize ring, a "stiff wallop" to be handed to the Senate by a man, who in the charges of his recent opponent for the Presidency, was expected to be "the creature of a Senatorial oligarchy." There is something to be said for the theory that the Senate is as appropriate a source from which to declare the future foreign policy of the United States as the Executive. This constitutional controversy will come up again, and so will the controversy over the Versailles Treaty, after Secretary Hughes and President Harding know the parts of that treaty in which we propose to participate.

THINGS TO SEE IN THE SPRINGTIME

THE BELLS OF THE SOLOMON SEAL

By Ernest Thompson Seton.

(Copyright 1921.)

This spring, go out into the woods and look for the Solomon Seal. You should find it in some half-open place, where it is neither wet nor dry. Here it is! See the string of bells that hangs from its curving stem. Dig out its roots, wash off the earth, and you will see the mark of King Solomon's Seal that gives its name to the plant. Now listen to the story of it all.

King Solomon had the "second sight" that means the deeper sight, the magic eyesight which made him see through a stone wall, or read men's thoughts. King Solomon had fabled ears, which means he could hear all sounds from A to Z; while common ears, like yours and mine, hear only the middle sounds from K to Q.

Everything that lives and moves is giving out music; every flower that blooms is singing its song. We cannot hear, our ears are too dull; but King Solomon could. And one day, as he walked through the woods he heard a new flower song that made him stop and listen. It had strange music with it, and part of that was a chime of golden bells.

The great king sat down on a bank. His fabled eyes could see right into the ground. He saw the fat fleshy root like a little goblin reaching its long white fingers down into the soil, picking out the magic crystals to pack away in its pockets; and he could see the tall stem like a wood-off carrying them up, and spreading them upon its flat hands, so they could soak up the juices of the sun and air. He could see them turning into a wonderful stuff like amber dew, with a tang like new-cut timber. But it was not yet done, so he could not tell just what it might be good for. Now it was Springtime, and it would be harvest Red Moon before the little worker would have the magic healing stored in its treasure bags underground. So to prevent any one harming or injuring the plant, till its work was done, the King took out his seal ring, and stamped seal marks all along the root; where they are unto this day. And then to make it sure he made the golden bell chimes become visible so every one could see them. There they hang like a row of ringing bells.

But the King never came back to learn the rest of it, for he had to build the temple; and he had many wives who took up a great deal of his time. So the world has never found out just what is the magic power of the plant. But it is there, be sure of that, just as surely as the peal of golden bells is there, and the marks of the great King's seal.

RANDOM NOTES

SOCIAL : PERSONAL MENTION : CLUBS

The Fayette County Vocational Conference for High School girls under the auspices of the Young Woman's Christian Association convened Saturday morning in the Federated Club rooms with more than forty girls registering at nine o'clock.

The program was carried out in every respect. Miss Marian Cadwallader instructor of music in the Wilmington schools was in charge of the music and devotionals.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Holmes, president of the local High School Club, made the address of welcome.

Splendid talks along vocational lines were given by Miss Mary Gladwin of the Lake Division Red Cross, Miss Stella West and Miss Vera Veal. Miss Gladwin gave a short history of nursing, especially the story of Florence Nightingale. She also presented the needs and opportunities of nursing outlining the different phases including private and hospital work public health, army and navy work.

Miss West made a strong appeal for teaching, emphasizing the importance of love for the work, thereby bringing enthusiasm to it, that would lead to being a successful teacher. She also discussed the practical and ideal advantages of this profession.

Miss Veal gave valuable information regarding Office and Secretarial work. She said that this profession required less preparation than some other practical experiences rather than study, most important. She closed with the admonition to the girls that they care for their own money on a business basis, both as individuals and heads of families.

Round table discussions were led by Miss Gladwin, Miss Laura Jones, Miss Mary Alice Finney, Miss Lulu Rowan.

The largest number of girls were interested in teaching, and joined that quorum, Miss Jones in charge.

Miss Myrtle McCoy presented the teaching of art in the public schools, Miss Cadwallader music, and Miss Mary Weaver, Home Economics. There were also High School and grade teachers present.

Nursing ranked second in choice with the girls.

Miss Rowan conducted the Office and Secretarial discussion.

Miss Finney had the general discussion coming under this head was Y. W. C. A. work, photography by Miss Margaret DeWees and Library work by Miss Elizabeth Johnson.

Afternoon Session

The afternoon session opened with a basket ball game in the gym, Miss Bernadine Norris in charge and was followed by the meeting proper in the Federated Club room. Miss Cadwallader conducted the music and Miss Jones the devotionals.

"Discovering Myself" was the subject of Miss Finney's fine talk. She said in part, that a girl should know her possibilities and should prepare herself for those possibilities. There are so many more opportunities for the girl now. Woman's greatest gift to the world is her creative instinct.

"What a Girl Has a Right to Expect of a School," and "What a School Has a Right to Expect of a Girl" were discussed in an interesting manner by Miss Helen Durant, and Misses Cadwallader and Helen Fretts.

Miss Durant said a girl has a right to expect of a school good material

The Farmer With a Fordson Doesn't Worry When It Rains

He knows that he can easily make up the time lost, get his ground ready and have his crops planted in time to insure full maturity.

8 or 10 acres is an easy day's plowing for the Fordson Tractor. It doesn't have to stop for an hour and a half at noon to water and feed. It doesn't have to be fed and hitched up in the morning and it doesn't require another hour for watering, feeding and bedding down at night when the farmer is already tired out after a long day's work.

And have you ever watched a Fordson Cut and Condition ground, draw a Cultivator, Drill, Manure Spreader, or Hay Loader, run a Feed Mill, Thresher, Saw Mill, Harvest Wheat, Mow Hay, Clip Stubble, Fill a Silo, Shred Corn, pull a Sled-load of Water to a distant field or any other of the many every day uses which the farmers below make of their Fordsons?

We don't know a Fordson owner who would think of going back to horses for this work any more than he would think of going back to oxen, cradling wheat, mowing hay with a scythe, or giving up his Ford Car for a horse and buggy.

FINAL SERMON IS DELIVERED BY DR. HENRY

Evangelist Speaks to Three Large Audiences on Final Day of Special Services.

Offering of $603 Raised at Final Meetings, Paid to Gifted Preacher.

The final meetings of the two-weeks' series conducted in this city by J. Q. A. Henry, widely known evangelist, were held Sunday, with each service being attended by large numbers of people, chiefly from the memberships of the Methodist, Presbyterian and First Baptist churches, which united in the series of special meetings.

During the day the offerings taken for Dr. Henry totaled $603, and this was paid to Dr. Henry for his exceptionally good work in this city.

In addition to delivering the address the Sunday School hour at the First Baptist church, Dr. Henry at 10:30 a. m. gave one of his most forceful sermons at Grace M. E. Church on the theme, "What God has Done to Keep People Out of Hell."

In the afternoon he spoke to another large audience at the First Presbyterian church, on the theme, "The Present World Crisis and the Coming of the King."

His farewell sermon at Grace Church at 7:30 attracted another big congregation, and his sermon on "The Half-Way House" made a profound impression on all who heard him.

During the series of meetings a number of decisions for the better life were made, and the messages delivered by the gifted evangelist proved exceptionally helpful to the church memberships generally, and a fine spirit of co-operation was manifested among the three churches throughout the entire series of revival services.

It gives me pleasure to announce that, because of reductions in the cost of all standard brands of serum, I am making a corresponding cut in the price.

Am sure it will pay you to call me before arranging for immunizing work.

Just remember, however, that price is not the sole consideration; better stand by the tried and true; if you are solicited to make a change, think twice; then decide to let well enough alone.

I have had a longer and larger experience with hog work than any other veterinarian in Ohio, and am the only graduate licensed practitioner in the state who devotes his time, and attention exclusively to the hog.

Permit me further to announce that I immunized more than 30,000 pigs in 1920 without one single "break".

PRISON TERM OF VALENTINE ENDS BY DEATH

Quick Tuberculosis Claims Life of Man Recently Sentenced For Chicken Thefts

Figured in One of the Most Unusual Cases Ever Brought Before Local Courts.

Sid Valentine, serving in the Ohio State Penitentiary a term of one to seven years for grand larceny, died in that institution Saturday.

Pulmonary tuberculosis, coupled with injuries which he received in an auto accident which caused his arrest and subsequent conviction, caused his death.

Valentine was serving his seventeenth day in the Penitentiary when death cut short his sentence.

The events that centered around Valentine's appearance in the local courts attracted state wide attention. About one month ago Valentine, in company with another man, made a raid on the chicken coops of citizens near Bloomingburg and started to Columbus with about sixty fowls in a Ford automobile. Before they had gone very far one of the roosters suddenly broke the stillness of the night by crowing. Valentine, who was driving was momentarily panic stricken and lost control of the machine. The car plunged over a bank and turned over, both men under it. Valentine was assisted to this city by his partner where he received treatment for fractured jaws and other injuries. Both men were later placed under arrest and convicted.

Valentine was the first man ever sentenced in Fayette county who was brought into the court room on a stretcher. He was removed to the penitentiary on March 31 and placed in the hospital.

Tuberculosis, with which he was afflicted, then preyed upon his weakened system and finally caused his death.

Valentine is survived by a grandmother living in this city.

No notice of funeral arrangements has been received here.

GET STATE AID FOR DIRECT ROAD

State aid for rebuilding of the Hillsboro-Leesburg-Washington pike has been promised, and much of roadway from the Fayette county line to Hillsboro will probably be rebuilt this year.

The road is in very bad condition and improvement of the road will offer a direct highly improved roadway from Hillsboro to this city by way of Leesburg and Samantha.

Under the state aid plan the state pays one half, Highland county one-fourth, the respective townships fifteen per cent and the abutting farm property 10 per cent.

Americanization is progression. It took only six languages to print the ballots in the packing house employees' strike referendum.

Local Manager Wanted

Unusual Opportunity for Right Man

A large brokerage firm doing a successful business with well-rated concerns throughout the country, wants a capable man at once to develop and handle their local business.

The opportunity is an unusual one because of the possibilities offered for substantial earnings in highly respectable business which will steadily increase as it becomes more firmly established locally.

The position requires a man possessing executive and sales ability with business experience and having commercial banking connections, although no investment is necessary. He may devote only a portion of his time to the business at first if desired, though we prefer a man who is able and free to give the business his entire time and best efforts.

The local branch should pay from $2500 to $10,000 the first year, according to population and the ability of the manager, as the commodity which we handle is a staple, always in demand, and which our large buying facilities permit us to sell at less than average market prices.

Owing to the demand, we must fill this position at once. Send your application to Guarantee Coal Mining Company, Como Bldg., Chicago, Ill., but do not write unless you can satisfy us as to honesty, reputation and business ability. —Advt.

The Wonderful Story of Powdered Milk

The Blizzard of Milk in a Warm Room

Did you know that you have been using powdered milk for over ten years?

Yes, you have, too.

That thin, tender brown crust on baker's bread

—that rich creaminess of ice cream

—that smooth richness in caramels, milk chocolates, and cream candies

—those light tender pancakes, ready mixed with powdered milk

—all these are made with powdered milk.

But this is barely the beginning of the wonderful story of powdered milk.

Klim Powdered Milk is nothing but rich, fresh, pure cow's milk reduced to powder form. Nothing is added—no pre-servatives, flavors or other substances of any kind.

The milk is pasteurized and then sprayed by force, in the finest of mists, into a room where it is met by a whirlwind of warm air. The water is evaporated at once and the solids of the milk fall like snow in drifts.

M-I-L-K—Milk with the water removed is KLIM.

K-L-I-M—Klim with the water replaced is MILK.

You replace the water in Klim and you have milk that looks, tastes, and smells like fresh milk. It contains vitamins and all the nourishing properties of pure, rich milk. For it is milk.

Klim in powdered form needs no ice to keep it; it will not sour; and it will not freeze in winter.

DON'T SUFFER WITH NEURALGIA

Use Soothing Musterole

When those sharp pains go shooting through your head, when your skull seems as if it would split, just rub a little Musterole on your temples and neck. It draws out the inflammation, soothes away the pain, usually giving quick relief.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister. Many doctors and nurses frankly recommend Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lambo, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet—colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). It is always dependable.

FOR BURNING ECZEMA

Apply Zemo the Clean, Antiseptic Liquid—Easy to Use—Does Not Stain

Greasy salves and ointments should not be applied if good clear skin is wanted. From any drugstore for 35c, or $1.00 for large size, get a bottle of Zemo. When applied as directed it effectively removes eczema, quickly stops itching, and heals skin troubles, also sores, burns, wounds and chafing. It penetrates, cleanses and soothes. Zemo is a clean, dependable and inexpensive, antiseptic liquid. Try it, as we believe nothing you have ever used is as effective and satisfying.

In skin troubles, ordinary soaps are irritating and liable to aggravate the condition. Use Zemo soap. It is antiseptic, soothing and hastens the process of healing.

WOMAN AVOIDS AN OPERATION

Hope Nearly Gone, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Saved Her

Star, N. C.—"My monthly spells gave me so much trouble, sometimes they would last two weeks. I was treated by two doctors without relief and they both said I would have to have an operation. I had my trouble four years and was unfit to do anything, and had given up all hope of ever getting any better. I read about your medicine in the 'Primitive Baptist' paper and decided to try it. I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills for about seven months and now I am able to do my work. I shall never forget your medicine and you may publish this if you want to as it is true."—Mrs. J. F. HURSEY, Star, N. C.

Here is another woman who adds her testimony to the many whose letters we have already published, proving that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound often restores health to suffering women even after they have gone so far that an operation is deemed advisable. Therefore it will surely pay any woman who suffers from ailments peculiar to her sex to give this good old fashioned remedy a fair trial.

HOUSE-BREAKING CHARGE FACED BY LOCAL MEN

Police Take Two Suspects Saturday Night After Home of James Forshaye Is Entered.

Ollie Downard and Earl Smith Face Charges.

Burglary and housebreaking is the charge filed against Ollie Downard and Earl Smith, taken by the police shortly after nine o'clock Saturday night, on evidence that they had entered the home of James Forshaye on Third street.

Forshaye and his wife returned from uptown after completing their Saturday night shopping and saw two men in their home it is claimed. A call was sent for the police but they were unable to find the men when they arrived on the scene. Forshaye said they had become alarmed and left.

The police, on the description given by Forshaye, kept up the hunt and a few minutes later picked up the two suspects.

The Forshaye home had been ransacked from top to bottom. The beds had been turned upside down in an effort to find money or valuables and chests and drawers and had been turned topsy-turvy.

Falling to find money or valuables the housebreakers had satisfied themselves by hunting something to eat and they had cleaned the larder.

Because of the condition of the lockup at the police station Downard and Smith were taken to the county jail to await a hearing.

Downard has figured in local courts before. He served a term in Mansfield for burglarizing a store at Millersville.

NORTH SHORE TO UNDERGO PROBE

The Health Board has called for a State Health official to make an investigation of the sanitary conditions at North Shore, the tract of land sold for building purposes on the Jeffersonville pike.

So far only one building has been erected on the tract, but the sanitary facilities are such that the water supply of the city might become contaminated if permitted to continue, and for this reason the official will investigate with a view to safeguarding the city water supply from a new source of danger.
